FACE ATTENDANCE

Objective

This is a system which is used to take attendance at the lab using facial features and comparing it to the stored data of members.This helps us take the attendance easily and store it in the database.

Working

Future Scope

Future scope is to improve the system and implement real time face recognition to input new familiar faces.